

MOUNT AIRY, NORTH CAROLINA

Sobotta Manor

BED & BREAKFAST

Nestled in the heart of the Yadkin Valley wine Region and just minutes from many of North Carolina finest Wineries and the Blue Ridge Parkway in the heart of Historic Downtown Mount Airy, walking distance to downtown restaurants and shopping.

The Sobotta Manor is an elegant English Tudor Revival built in 1932 on a one acre park like setting. Step back in time to the early 1900's and envision yourself as a well to do family during this era.

Come to visit and stay in the Sobotta family home as our guest. Enjoy the beautiful rare architecture of the building, while living inside with the authentic old period pieces from America and Europe as well as new amenities.

347 West Pine Street
Mount Airy, NC 27030

336-786-2777

www.sobottamanor.com

The Sobotta Manor takes you on a journey into Mount Airys famous past, coveted as small town Americana and the home to Andy Griffith also know as Mayberry on the 60's TV Show named for the famous hometown star.

Our home is also ideal for small and intimate weddings and receptions performed outdoors in our formal English garden or in our elegant home. We also host bridal luncheons, showers, teas and rehearsal dinners.

Each of our suites have cozy beds topped with luxury Italian linens, flat screen TV's with cable, high speed wireless Internet, private ensuite bathrooms and climate controlled air-conditioning.

Breakfast is a lavish affair; each morning starts with a gourmet breakfast served in our European inspired dining room overlooking our formal English Garden. Come and visit us, meet the warm welcoming innkeepers, Junior and Robin Hester and the resident Bichon Frise Clayton and Cher, who will respond to your every whim. Enjoy the mountains, Mayberry tours, local music, hiking, biking and visits to the local wineries.